

WEEK OF FEBRUARY 2

2 PETER & JUDE

---

Introduction

According to the apostle Peter, God will bring his justice even if it seems delayed to us (3:1-13). As we continue through chapter three, we'll be exhorted to stay diligent in our faith. In a world where truth can be twisted, we'll uncover how to remain steadfast, grow spiritually, and live in a way that reflects our hope in Christ.

Study Questions

Read 2 Peter 3:14 - 18

1. What does it mean to “be diligent to be found by Him without spot or blemish” (v. 14)?
2. How does Peter describe those who twist Scripture (v. 16)?
3. How does Peter’s final warning reinforce the letter’s message (v. 17)?
4. Why is growing in grace and knowledge of Christ essential to our faith (v. 18)?

Application Questions

1. Does being diligent in our faith undermine the message of salvation by grace alone? Why or why not?
2. What does “gospel-motivated” diligence look like in our lives?
3. How do we avoid twisting Scripture?
4. How can we encourage one another to grow in the “grace and knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ”?
